

When you sneeze or cough, do the following:

DON'T SPREAD

DISEASE!

turn your head away from others

cover your nose and mouth with a tissue

in the absence of a tissue, use your sleeve throw the used tissue into the trash after throwing away the tissue, wash your hands with soap and water or use antibacterial gel use a protective mask to protect the people around you

By doing so you help to prevent the flu and other respiratory infections!